

FORUM FENNICUM PLATFORM - AN INTRODUCTION.

Forum Fennicum platform was set up with the University of Jyväskylä to develop a web tool for educational institutions and teachers to exchange views and knowledge.

1. Front-page (Fig.1): forum discussion, announcements, links, Google search and RSS-feeds of common interest
2. Working Material: public documents and working drafts (password protected) are available in this section. Among others, results of the teacher survey.
3. Events Calendar: schools can add events (seminars, conferences, planned trips/exchanges) to the shared calendar
4. Teachers' Blog: teachers can use the blog as place to discuss and comment daily school experiences and events
5. Photo galleries: photos, audio and video clips of the teacher seminar, but also of other school events, can be posted in this section
6. Country Discussion: schools from the same country can discuss here, in own language, issues of common interest

Forum Fennicum platform is now in a developing stage All suggestions to improve the content and to create common issues are appreciated.

Concerning questions, comments and new topics, please do not hesitate to contact special advisor giuseppe.lugano@gmail.com or University of Jyväskylä, Institute for Educational Research <http://www.peda.net>
